My Story Begins Here!

(Spelters share their stories of professional and personal development)

Adeeba Ahmad

Back in 2013, I joined SPELT as a timid, novice ELT teacher. Six years later, here I am.....a devout SPELTER and a confident ELT teacher.

SPELT helped me develop professionally, encouraged me to try new things and empowered me to initiate change in my local context. SPELT nurtured my passion to teach effectively and enhanced my understanding of an autonomous learner. Being in the company of ELT experts, I was able to learn what exactly is meant to be a reflective teacher. SPELT provided me with the platform to explore and achieve my goals as an expert ELT practitioner.
