Gadap Public School Training Report

The Effective Pedagogy Course was designed and facilitated by the team of Society of Pakistan English Language Teachers (SPELT) for faculty members of the Gadap Public School. The 15-hour programme was held on the 3rd, 5th and 12th of June, 2021. The number of participants mutually agreed upon was 28. However, 24 teachers attended the training.

The Effective Pedagogy Course aimed at enhancing and enriching the teaching skills of the faculty members of Gadap Public School. The course participants were provided extensive exposure to various ideas and strategies for enhancing and improving their teaching skills. The sessions were held on activity based learning, classroom management, reflective teaching, learner engagement and motivation, assessment and evaluation, theories of learning, teaching methodologies and Bloom's taxonomy.

The course delivery was carried out in an interactive manner, keeping the needs and level of the participants in view. Pair and group work were a constant part of the teaching learning process.

The course delivery included:

- 15 hours of face to face sessions
- Formative/ summative assessment
- Administrative monitoring

The school arranged the training room, multimedia system, screen and sound system – refreshments, lunch and tea. The transport was also provided by the school to the trainers.
