

Vocabulary Activities

TARGET AUDIENCE: All Teachers, Coordinators, Principals and Heads

Acquiring a good vocabulary is essential for success in school and the 21st-century workplace. It is challenging but necessary to expand one's vocabulary when writing a narrative, persuasive piece, or a research paper.

This presentation aims to clarify the complexities faced during vocabulary development. Moreover, it will enable participants to recognise learners' difficulties, from encountering new words to using them correctly.

The session emphasizes a systematic approach to vocabulary instruction, outlining a structured series of steps to guide learners in acquiring and using an extensive range of words. Additionally, the workshop highlights the importance of constructive feedback in refining vocabulary skills and creating a positive and enjoyable learning environment.

By attending this session, attendees will explore how to overcome common pitfalls and gain valuable insights into enhancing their vocabulary skills in diverse linguistic contexts. They will also learn how to present these skills to students at varying stages of linguistic development.
