

Exploring AI in English Language Teaching

As Artificial Intelligence reshapes global education, English Language Teaching (ELT) stands at the crossroads of innovation and inquiry. This engaging webinar explores how AI is transforming language instruction—from improving classroom practices to redefining the role of teachers. It will dive into the opportunities AI presents, address key concerns, and explore how it can be harnessed to create more effective and meaningful English language teaching and learning experiences. Designed for ELT professionals and educators, the session will offer actionable strategies, hands-on examples, and thoughtful insights into shaping an AI-empowered future in ELT.
