

PODCASTING FOR EMPOWERED LEARNING: BUILDING LANGUAGE & 21ST-CENTURY SKILLS

In today's world, learners need more than English fluency—they require critical thinking, creativity, collaboration, and innovation to succeed as global citizens. This webinar highlights how podcasting can make language learning more engaging, accessible, and future-ready. From real-life conversations and debates to classroom-friendly podcast projects, participants will explore practical strategies for integrating podcasts, even with large groups and limited resources.

Key Takeaways:

- Understand the benefits of podcasting for English Language Learners (ELLs).
- Explore models and uses of podcasts in diverse learning contexts.
- Learn step-by-step strategies for creating podcasts with students.
- Discover how podcasts foster motivation and 21st-century competencies.
- Gain ideas to connect podcasting with classroom activities.
