

Day 2: Habib University Programme

| Time                                          | Room                                 | Title                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|-----------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:00 - 9:00 am                                | HM Auditorium (E215)                 | Registration                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 9:00 - 9:45 am                                |                                      | Opening Ceremony                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 9:45 - 10:30 am                               |                                      | Keynote Address: Using the Learners' Own Language(s) in the ELT Classroom: What, Why, When?Dr Graham Hall (Professor Emeritus TESOL, UK)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 10:30 - 11:30 am                              | Courtyard                            | Networking Brunch                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Parallel Sessions11:30 am - 12:15 pm      | Tariq Rafi Hall (E220)               | Plenary Address 1: Transforming ELT with Peer-to-Peer Digital InteractionsDr Tran Tin Nghi (L2 Acquisition Expert, Vietnam)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|                                               | HM Auditorium (E-215)                | Policy Dialogue: Digital Equity in English Language Teaching: Policy Priorities for PakistanPanelists: Dr Tayyaba Tamim (Dean SOE, LUMS), Dr Fouzia Khan (Chief Advisor & Head of Provincial Curriculum Wing, Sindh), Abbas Husain (Director, TDC) & Dr Bushra A. Khurram (Assistant Professor, Karachi University)Moderator: Talha Chishti (Head of English and School Education British Council Pakistan) |
| Parallel Featured Sessions12:25 - 1:00 pm | Mansoor Habib Seminar Room (N-219)   | Featured Session 1: Teacher Feedback vs. Peer Feedback: What Works for Pakistani English Learners?Dr Nasreen Hussain (Educationist, Karachi, Pakistan)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|                                               | Amin Issa Tai Seminar Room (W-243)   | Featured Session 2: Rethinking ELT Materials Development: The VOLLEY TIME Perspective for Today's LearnersDr Ikhsanuddin (Chief Editor, JELTIM and President ELTeaM, Indonesia)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|                                               | Mahmood Nensey Classroom (W-234)     | Featured Session 3: Employing Animated Film as a Mentor Text: A Creative Writing PerspectiveDr John Baker (Assistant Professor, Ho Chi Minh City University of Industry and Trade, Vietnam)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|                                               | Javat Seminar Room (W-242)           | Featured Session 4: Academic Success: Secrets and Keys?Dr Mirat ul Fatima (ELT Consultant, MFA Consultancies), Prof. Dr Nasreen M. Ahsan (Former Chairperson, Humanities Dept., NED)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|                                               | Kassim Parekh Classroom (C-200)      | Featured Session 5: Re-imagining ELT through Southern Translingual PraxisDr Waqar Ali Shah (Lecturer, MUET, Jamshoro, Sindh)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|                                               | Standard Chartered Classroom (N-220) | Featured Session 6: AI and the Socio-politics of Second Language Learning: The Need for Embedding Language Awareness Pedagogical ApproachDr Tayyaba Tamim (Dean SOE, LUMS, Lahore)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 1:00 - 1:30 pm                                |                                      | Namaz Break                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Parallel Workshops1:40 - 2:40 pm          | Mansoor Habib Seminar Room (N-219)   | Workshop 1: Leading for Learning: Applying Maxwell's Five Levels of Leadership in ELTHamza Abbasi (Course Lead, QU, Qatar) and Conan Kmiecik (Course Lead, QU, Qatar)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |

|                                                |                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                | Amin Issa Tai Seminar Room (W-243)   | Workshop 2: From Minions to Meaning: Teaching Grammar That Gets Texts TalkingProfessor Beryl Exley (School of Education and Professional Studies Griffith Institute of Educational Research, Australia)SFL (Systemic Functional Linguistics) Team: Dr. Bushra A. Khurram (Assistant Professor, KU), Aneesa Mumtaz (SPELT), Huma M. Thaver (SPELT) |
|                                                | Mahmood Nensey Classroom (W-234)     | Workshop 3: AI in Education: Tools, Ethics, and PromptsFarheen Hasan (Co-ordinator, TLT and EdLab), Judy Wren (Sultan Qaboos University, Oman), Rana Khan (Assistant Professor & President, TEFL Kuwait)                                                                                                                                              |
|                                                | Javat Seminar Room (W-242)           | Workshop 4: Adapting Experiential Learning for Writing ClassroomsNajia Nazir (Yanbu Industrial College, Saudi Arabia)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|                                                | Kassim Parekh Classroom (C-200)      | Workshop 5: The Principles of Teaching ReadingDr Rob Waring (Thammasat University, Thailand)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|                                                | Standard Chartered Classroom (N-220) | Workshop 6: When Grammar is FunSylvie Doláková (ELT Consultant & Author, Czech Republic)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|                                                | Arif Habib Seminar Room (C-109)      | Workshop 7: Promoting Vocabulary Acquisition and Collaborative Interaction through a Jigsaw ActivityErika Van Winden (Lecturer, Qatar University)                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|                                                | Soorty Lecture Hall (E-121)          | Workshop 8: Robothon and ELT: Fostering a Transformative Shift in Language LearningLubna Panjwani (Director, PROWESS; Regional Director, PMC, Pakistan) and Behroz Noorani (CEO, Align STEM Club, Pakistan)                                                                                                                                           |
| Parallel Sessions2:50 - 3:35 pm | Tariq Rafi Hall (E220)               | Plenary Address 2: The Decolonized ClassroomAbbas Husain (Managing Director, TDC)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|                                                | HM Auditorium (E215)                 | Panel Discussion: Future of Regional Teacher Associations: Navigating Digital and Technological ShiftsPanelists: Dr Ikhsanuddin (Indonesia), Professor Bimali Indrarathne (Sri Lanka), Dr Rubina Khan (Bangladesh) & Mohsin Tejani (Pakistan)Moderator: Affan Javed (Head of School Systems South Asia, British Council)            |
| Panel Discussion3:45 - 4:30 pm  | HM Auditorium (E215)                 | Panel Discussion: Translation and Translanguaging for Access and Equity in Education: Opportunities and ChallengesPanelists:1. Dr Farid Panjwani (Dean, AKU-IED)2. Dr Fatima Dar (CEO, Oak Consulting)3. Adeel Baloch (Head of Literacy and Life Skills, TCF)Moderator:Dr Fauzia Shamim (Vice-President, SPELT)     |
| 4:30 – 5:00 pm                                 | HM Auditorium (E215)                 | Closing Ceremony and Photographs                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |

