

GRAMMAR-RICH, SPEECH-POOR: THE MISSING LINK

Many teachers face the same classroom puzzle: students can explain grammar rules perfectly, yet hesitate or freeze when asked to speak. This webinar explores why this happens and what is often missing in ELT classrooms.

Using real classroom examples and practical strategies, the session will show how teachers can help learners move from knowing English to confidently using it in speech. The focus is on creating safe speaking opportunities, reducing fear of mistakes, and building fluency step by step—without adding extra pressure or workload for teachers.

Join us to empower your students to speak English with confidence!
