

LOW-COST TEACHING TECHNIQUES TO BOOST STUDENT ENGAGEMENT

This webinar introduces practical, easy-to-implement strategies to increase student engagement. The techniques are low-cost and eco-friendly, helping teachers save time and energy while making lessons more effective. The session focuses on creating inclusive learning environments where all students feel involved and valued, while strengthening classroom management. It also explores ways to build positive, lasting relationships with students. Participants will learn how these strategies develop critical thinking, collaboration, confidence, and communication skills, and gain realistic ideas they can apply immediately.

Rabia Tayyaba is an experienced English teacher and teacher trainer with nearly 20 years of work across primary to higher secondary education. She holds an MPhil in Education Leadership and Management from LUMS, focusing on teacher training and student achievement, and an MPhil in American Studies from Quaid-i-Azam University, along with an MA in English from Kinnaird College. As a 2012 alumna of the Teaching Excellence and Achievement Program, she is committed to student-centred learning. She is a certified Master Trainer with the British Council Pakistan and an Associate Trainer with Cities for Children Pakistan, supporting the professional development of educators and school leaders.
