

Dear Spelt Member,

Assalam o Alaikum

January 31, 2020

On a special request of participants of January's session we have planned a session on teaching writing skills. Attend this session with your colleagues to learn and share your ideas. Please feel free to provide your feedback and suggestions for this year at talhasaleemelt@gmail.com.

Writing Approaches to Teach Writing Effectively

Teaching writing is one of the most important skill English language teachers should possess. Teachers are often found complaining about the students that they do not learn writing easily but the issue can be resolved by applying different approaches to teach writing skills effectively.

This Academic session is meant to introduce the participants to goal-oriented process writing. The participants will be presented with different approaches to essay writing in the 21st century which will help them teach writing in a better way.

This session will:

- increase teachers' awareness related to different approaches of writing in the 21st Century.
- provide teachers with first-hand experience of writing in different genres.
- assist teachers by introducing different classroom friendly writing techniques.
- enable teachers to make their students produce different kind of writing texts in a creative manner.
