

Teaching Language Made Easy

This session is based on eight years of integrated implementation experience of Patricia McEldowney IMLS (Integrated Model of Language Skills) & Howard Gardner's Multiple Intelligences. The format, sequence, and tips have been applied while teaching diverse students, from preschoolers, homeschooled to university students, parents, and teachers. The results of this implementation have not only been remarkably fulfilling; in fact, it also helped learners to stretch their abilities and skills eagerly. This session will help make teaching and learning a mutually evolving experience for teachers and students. The session will also help to clarify essential concepts that last a lifetime.

Shireen Khan is a certified Master Trainer and has assisted young learners, educated parents, and trained teachers in her social entrepreneurship initiative, now over 25 years old. She has also compiled ten e-Books on Self Development, English & Urdu languages, Arts, Time management, etc. She treats herself as a lifelong learner and never misses any new knowledge learning opportunity.
