ELT NEWS AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITIES FROM AROUND THE GLOBE

It's time to prepare your proposal for 2023!

It's not long now until we will be opening our call for proposals for the 56th IATEFL International Conference and Exhibition for English language teacher professionals. This will take place in Harrogate, UK from Tuesday 18 to Friday 21 April 2023.

The deadline for submissions is 16.00 (UK time) Wednesday 21 September 2022 (please note, this is an extension to the previously advertised deadline). We will not be able to accept any further proposals after this time.

In order to make sure you are ready there's a few things you can start doing now.

1. Join IATEFL or renew your membership. It is a requirement of everyone submitting a proposal (including joint speakers) that they have a current IATEFL membership at the time of submission. You can find out more about IATEFL membership at www.iatefl.org/membership and join via your IATEFL Dashboard. If you have never logged into the IATEFL Dashboard before, you can create a free account here .

2. Watch Madeleine du Vivier's session on How to write an effective IATEFL conference proposal. This is free to watch via IATEFL's YouTube channel at <https://youtu.be/5Gexv0fQ0dI> . It contains some helpful advice about the types of sessions and selection criteria.

3. Develop your idea and draft your proposal. Start thinking about the topic you would like to speak on and share your thoughts with colleagues. It's always useful to get feedback and you may find someone you can collaborate with for a joint proposal. Once you have settled on an idea, draft your proposal. You will need to submit a title (maximum 10 words), an abstract (50-60 words) for the Conference Programme, and a summary (200-250 words) that will inform the proposals committee of the content and structure of your presentation. The full guidelines for submissions can be found at www.iatefl.org/conference/iatefl-conference-speaker-guidelines .

4. Think about funding. All speakers are required to pay the full conference fee of £185 (or £112 for student members) in order to secure their place in the programme. You will not need to pay this until after the proposal results are released in early December 2022 but now is a good time to speak to your manager about funding to make sure you can pay the fee and get to Harrogate. The deadline for all speakers to make their payments is Wednesday 22 December 2022 at 16.00 (UK time).

5. Tell your friends and colleagues. Please feel free to forward this email onto anyone you know who might be interested in presenting at the 56th IATEFL International Conference and Exhibition.

Once the call for proposals is open we will send instructions on what you will need to do to make sure your proposal is submitted correctly by the deadline, so keep an eye on your emails over the next few weeks. This information will also be available at www.iatefl.org/conference/speaker-information .

Some key dates for your diary

Wednesday 21 September 2022 at 16.00 (UK time): Proposal submission deadline

Early December 2022: You will hear the results of your proposal submission

Wednesday 22 December 2022 at 16.00 (UK time): Speaker payment deadline

Tuesday 18 - Friday 21 April 2023: 56th IATEFL International Conference and Exhibition

Good luck with your preparations, we look forward to receiving your proposal.
