

Harnessing Online Resources for Reading and Writing: Empowering Teachers for Classroom Integration

The growing availability of online educational resources has provided teachers many opportunities to enhance their teaching practices. These resources aim to inspire and equip educators with the necessary tools to embrace technology in their classrooms and optimize student learning outcomes. The session will highlight the importance of online resources for reading and writing instruction, focusing on Readworks (www.readworks.org) and Readwritethink (www.readwritethink.org). Participants will gain insights about incorporating online resources effectively in their teaching methodologies, enabling them to foster critical reading and writing skills among their students.
