

Free Academic Session for Teachers and Parents in collaboration with Kiran Foundation

Learning English through Pretend and Play

Join Sabina Khatri in an innovative session as she delves into the fun-based approach of teaching day to day spoken English early on from preschool, with a specific emphasis on enjoying using English as the medium for navigating daily affairs of life through pretend and play, singing, prop stories and short roleplays.

She will share the methodology she has used for her students at Kiran Foundation, specifically the elements that make it successful. Through practical examples, classroom practices and specific activities, she will enable attendees to replicate the teaching methodology in their own classrooms, schools and even homes.

Sabina Khatri, the Founder of Kiran Foundation (KF), came to Lyari following one child's incident of abuse and domestic violence. This one incident became the start of a long journey, that evolved into the creation of KF, a non-profit organization. Over the last decade, she has immersed herself in the community serving hundreds of marginalized children and their families, with the aim of providing a safe and nurturing environment. She is a certified Nutritionist, Fitness Instructor, and a Counsellor. Her efforts have garnered her several national and international recognitions and awards including 'Sitara-e Imtiaz' 2020, Pakistan's highest civilian honor. She has recently been Awarded an Honorary Senior Teaching Fellowship by AKU-IED.*
